

DONATIONS OF ACADEMIC REGALIA

The University of Texas at Austin welcomes donations of academic regalia for use by faculty in official ceremonies such as Honors Day and Commencement. Through the generous contribution of regalia by retired faculty and families of deceased faculty, current faculty who do not have robes have been able to participate in important institutional occasions.

Departmental Chairs are asked to inform faculty of the opportunity to donate regalia to the University at the time of their retirement or death. Many individuals and families who have made such a contribution have appreciated the fact that the regalia will benefit a department, college or school.

Should you, a member of your faculty or a family wish to discuss a donation of regalia, please contact:

Susan Wagnon Clagett
Associate Vice President for Public Affairs
Main Building, Room 22
Phone: 471-7753
FAX: 471-8569
E-Mail: clagett@mail.utexas.edu

Those wishing to do so may bring regalia to the Main Building, Room 22. Ms. Clagett will work with the Department Chair and Dean to place the donated regalia.

Thank you.